In 1915, the U.S. House denied the right to vote to women.

In 1959, Berry Gordy Jr. organized Motown Records in Detroit.

In 1987, movie director Wayne Newton announced his inFairplay, Maryland, at age 89.

In 1971, the United States and Mexico signed a treaty that ended the longstanding boundary dispute.

In 1977, President Jimmy Carter hosted the first official state dinner for a Canadian Prime Minister.

In 1979, the first human heart transplant was performed by Dr. Christiaan Barnard.

In 1985, the United States and Mexico signed a treaty that ended the longstanding boundary dispute.

In 1989, the Berlin Wall fell, symbolizing the end of the Cold War.

In 1991, the first Persian Gulf War ended with the defeat of Iraq.

In 1993, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) was established.

In 1995, the first World Trade Summit was held.

In 2001, the 9/11 attacks changed the course of American history.

In 2009, Barack Obama became the first African American to be elected as President of the United States.

In 2010, the Affordable Care Act was signed into law.

In 2011, the Arab Spring began.

In 2013, the United States and Mexico signed a treaty that ended the longstanding boundary dispute.

In 2016, the United States and Mexico signed a treaty that ended the longstanding boundary dispute.

In 2017, the United States and Mexico signed a treaty that ended the longstanding boundary dispute.

In 2018, the United States and Mexico signed a treaty that ended the longstanding boundary dispute.

In 2019, the first successful space launch by a private company was achieved.

In 2020, the COVID-19 pandemic began.

In 2021, the United States and Mexico signed a treaty that ended the longstanding boundary dispute.