Rain until afternoon today, high 60°/50°. Mostly cloudy in the evening, light rain in the morning. Partly cloudy with a high of 48°/38°. Rain before 2 p.m., clearing after 2 p.m.

A storm system will charge through the Northeast, bringing periods of rain from Pennsylvania to Maine for Election Day. The storm system will cause severe thunderstorms from southeastern Pennsylvania to North Carolina. Snow will move into North Dakota, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa and Montana. It will dry in Texas and the Southwest.

The Herald-Mail     Tuesday, November 6, 2018

By Authority, Friends of Elizabeth Paul, Marjorie Ruhf, Treasurer.

Thought for today: “Quotation is a serviceable substitute for wit.” — Oscar Wilde (1854-1900)

Today is Tuesday, Nov. 6. The third day of 2018. 88 days will pass before New Year’s Day. Today is International Day of families.

Today’s highlight in history:

1860: Lincoln elected president of US

Edward M. Kennedy was elected to the Senate. Dwight D. Eisenhower was elected commander of the United States as President. Jefferson Davis was elected governor of the United States as President of the Republic Party. Abraham Lincoln of Illinois was elected president of US

1861: Lincoln Inauguration

The ceremony took place in Washington, DC, with nine world leaders present. Obama spoke by phone with former President Bill Clinton.

Today is Tuesday, Nov. 6. The third day of 2018. 88 days will pass before New Year’s Day. Today is International Day of families.

Today’s highlight in history:

1860: Lincoln elected president of US

Edward M. Kennedy was elected to the Senate. Dwight D. Eisenhower was elected commander of the United States as President. Jefferson Davis was elected governor of the United States as President of the Republic Party. Abraham Lincoln of Illinois was elected president of US

1861: Lincoln Inauguration

The ceremony took place in Washington, DC, with nine world leaders present. Obama spoke by phone with former President Bill Clinton.